NO NATIONAL PARTY. MUNTWEILER CLEVER

American Federation of Labor Has So Decided.

INDEPENDENT LINES

Active Participation of Workingmen in Endeavoring to Elect Friends of Labor is Vigorously Urged.

Minneapolis, Nov. 21.—The American Federation of Labor, which is holding its annual convention here, endorsed the political programme of President Gompers during the last campaign, and urged a continuance of activity along independent lines, strongly condemning, however, the idea of affiliation with any special party and going on record as opposed to forming a national labor party.

Throughout the sessions politics have been frequently discussed, and in the convention became evident that nothing would come up of more interest to the delegates than the committee's reports on the president's views. At the opening of the afternoon session the committee made a favorable recommendation regarding active participation in electing friends of labor as legislators. The delegates entered into a consideration of the matter with much interest, and the vote was practically unanimous in favor of adopting the president's recommendations.

EPISCOPIANS MEET.

Eighth Missionary Department Convention at Little Rock.

Little Rock, Nov. 21.—The second annual conference of the Eighth missionary department of the Protestant Episcopal church, which includes, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma and Indian Territory, opened here Sunday. Six bishops are in attendance.
 They are Bishops Tuttle of Missouri primate of the American church; Ses-sums of Louisiana, Gallor of Tennessee, Kinsolving of Texas, Brooke of Oklahoma and Brown of Arkansas.

A banquet was given visiting delegates, at which toasts were responded to by all the bishops in the city.
 The opening session of the congress was held at Christ church at night, at which an address of welcome was delivered by Bishop Brown, and addresses were made by Bishops Kinsolving on the subject, "The American Episcopal Church and its Place in the Life of the Nation," and by Bishop Gallor on "The American Episcopal Church and its Present and Future Work for the Nation."

TAFT SILENT.

Refused to Say Whether He Had Communicated With President.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Secretary of War Taft refused to make any statement whatever concerning the negro troops which have been ordered discharged at Fort Reno.

"I can't discuss the case until tomorrow," Secretary Taft replied to all questions. He refused to say whether or not he had been in communication with the president by wireless.

Immediately after his arrival here from New Haven Secretary Taft went to the war department and summoned Major General Ainsworth, military secretary; Brigadier General Thomas H. Barry, chief of staff, and General Oliver, assistant secretary of war, for a conference. William Loeb, Jr., secretary to the president, was also summoned to the war department before the end of the conference for more than an hour. All were silent about the conclusions reached.

The war department has no advices confirming reports from Fort Reno that twenty-five of the members of the Twenty-Fifth infantry have already been discharged. So far as the department knows, only seven members of the battalion are responsible for the riot at Brownsville have been dismissed, and these were soldiers who were under arrest at San Antonio, and were dismissed from the service after the courts failed to substantiate charges that the men were participants in the riot at Fort Brown.

ANSWER GIVEN OUT.

Dismissal Held Up Until New Evidence
 Can Be Heard.

New York, Nov. 21.—A cable dispatch from President Roosevelt directing suspension of his order discharging negro troops of the Twenty-Fifth regiment unless the facts are as known to him shown to be false, but expressing his willingness to hear new facts bearing on the case was made public Sunday by Gilchrist Stewart of the Constitutional league, who cabled the president in Panama.

Remaining Writs Granted.

Austin, Nov. 21.—In the supreme court applicants for remaining twenty writs of error involving Love tax law have been granted.

With Aid of Three Others Secures From Banks

CONSIDERABLE CASH

Messenger Would Furnish This Man Checks and He Would Copy Signatures So Accurately Detection Was Difficult.

New York, Nov. 21.—The members of a clever gang of forgers decided, in the midst of their trial, to plead guilty to forgery in the second degree.
 The prisoners were Thomas McCarthy, his wife, Anna, and Thomas S. Shadd, a former messenger employed by a bank of New York.

Charles Muntweiler, who was the head of the gang and who engineered their ingenious system of forgeries, turned state's evidence. When the original arrests were made last summer Muntweiler fled to Chicago, but was captured there. While being brought back by a detective he escaped from a train at Buffalo. He was caught again soon after his escape.

The forgery of the gang was well conceived. Shadd, as a bank messenger, often was intrusted with checks.
 These he took to Muntweiler, who would trace the signatures on blank checks. Several thousand dollars were obtained by the gang in this way, and in addition $4,000 was secured by copying the photographs in newspapers of signatures on checks given by those who subscribed the funds for the San Francisco sufferers.

The methods of this gang of forgers were discovered by the police in the nick of time, for they had made arrangements, it has been stated, for additional forgeries amounting to nearly $200,000.

STATEMENT ISSUED.

War Department Makes Explanation Relative to Negro Soldier Matter.

Washington, Nov. 21.—The war department has issued the following statement concerning the negro troops ordered dismissed at Fort Reno:

"In the matter of the order discharging enlisted men of three companies of the Twenty-fifth infantry issued by the president an application was presented to the secretary of war by a number of persons of standing asking for a rehearing by the president, on which action was taken. The secretary telegraphed the president the application and delayed the proceedings of the discharge till the president could indicate his wishes. The secretary meantime was called out. No answer was received from the president.
 The secretary on his return did not feel justified in further delaying the execution of the order and especially in view of the fact that the secretary then learned the president had fully and exhaustively considered the argument against the order by persons who had applied for a rehearing. Accordingly the secretary directed Tuesday that the proceedings for the discharge be continued without delay."

ALMOST CONSTANT.

Financial Loss to Railroads Will Be Something Great.

Memphis, Nov. 21.—There was an almost constant downpour during Tuesday night and the local situation was very little improved. Railroad matters are some little better. The Southern has resumed traffic. With the Illinois Central and Nashville, Chattanooga and Southern the situation is about the same, both roads having practically suspended on the northern divisions. The Louisville and Nashville had no washouts, but trains are delayed greatly. Street car service in this city is badly crippled.
 The financial loss to the railroads and business is great.

CHISHOLM SANE.

Federal Court Jury at Birmingham Renders This Verdict.

Birmingham, Nov. 21.—After having been out all night the jury in the Federal court in the case of the sanity of Alexander R. Chisholm, former paying teller of the First National bank, who is alleged to have defaulted for $100,000, brought in a verdict Wednesday morning declaring that defendant is sane and is sufficiently in possession of his mental faculties to be tried.

DOCKYARDS DESTROYED.

Loss Will Amount to Several Millions of Francs.

Toulon, France, Nov. 21.—The main portion of the dockyards of Societe des Forges et Chantiers was destroyed by fire. Ships in the course of construction were saved with difficulty.
 The loss will amount to several millions of francs.

EASTHAM-HOWELL WEDDING.

Brilliant Celebration of the Marriage Rite at the First Baptist Church— Reception.

At 8:30 o'clock yesterday evening at the first Baptist church in this city Mr. Duncan Douglas Eastham, of Italy, Texas, and Miss Jennie Howell of this city were united in marriage by Dr. George B. Butler, the pastor, in the presence of a large assemblage including many persons from other cities of the state. The decorations enhanced the beauty of the interior of the handsome church, with palms, ferns and other plants banked about the altar rail surrounding a fountain and forming a lovely grotto.

The wedding party included the following: Miss Norma Calhoun of Houston, maid of honor; Mrs. J. Webb Howell, matron of honor; Misses Fannie Howell of Dallas, Louise Brown and Grace Norrell of Houston, Winnie Thomas, Nellie Batte and Lilla Graham McInnis, bridesmaids; W. A. Eastham of Huntsville, best man; J. A. Simmons and W. H. Craig of Italy, T. W. Oliphint of Houston, W. F. Smither of Huntsville, O. E. Saunders, B. C. Pittuck of Dallas, and Robt. W. Howell, groomsmen; Jas. W. James, R. S. Webb Jr., Stuart Boatwright and John Sharp Williams Jr., all four cousins of the bride, ushers; little Misses Delha Mildred Wootters of Crockett, Ara Haswell, Zenobia Webb and Mary James, flower girls.

Mrs. Robt. S. Webb presided at the organ and the notes of "Tannhauser" proclaimed the hour for the ceremony. Following this number came the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin," exquisitely rendered by a chorus of fourteen under the direction of Mrs. H. O. Boatwright. The members of the chorus passed, while singing, down the center aisle of the church to the altar. The chorus included Mesdames H. O. Boatwright, W. C. Davis, Misses Hettie Smith, Ethel Cavitt, Lilian Parks, Messrs Junkin, King, Law, Withers, S. M. Derden and Geo. A. Adams. The wedding party followed immediately, the bridesmaids, groomsmen, maid and matron of honor and flower girls marching in pairs and preceding the bride who leaned upon the arm of her brother, Robt. W. Howell, and met the groom and best man at the altar. The ring was employed in the beautiful ceremony, and following the prayer, Mrs. W. C. Davis sang with infinite sweetness "Dearest Heart, I Love but Thee." To the notes the recessional, Mendelssohn's wedding march, the party passed out of the church to waiting carriages, the path of the bride being strewn with white chrysanthemum petals by the flower girls.

ell, Delha Eastham of Huntsville, E. W. Sewall of Houston and M. D. Ferris of Huntsville, and received in the parlor by the bride and groom and wedding party. In the library greetings were extended by Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Eastham, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Eastham of Huntsville Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wooters of Crockett, Mrs. C. D. Oliphint of Houston, Mrs. C. G. Barrett, of Huntsville, Mesdames F. M. Law, Robt. S. Webb, H. O. Boatwright, J. Webb Howell, T. R. Batte and M. H. James, Messrs. E. W. Sewall and C. D. Oliphint of Houston.

The bride's dress was of radium satin with pearl passementerie and berthia of Princess Louise lace, veil and wreath of orange blossoms, the only jewel worn being a diamond brooch, the gift of the groom. She carried white bride's roses. The maids of honor wore radium with real lace trimmings, the matron of honor French chiffon and lace, the bridesmaids white net dresses with interlinings and the flower girls white mull. All carried white chrysanthemums except the flower girls, who were provided with baskets of chrysanthemum petals.

The bride and groom each belong to prominent and well known families. The groom is a son of Mrs. Delha Eastham of Huntsville, and was reared in that city. He is now a successful young planter residing near Italy, where he has large farming interests. He is a young man of fine attainments and excellent character.

The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Howell and reared in Bryan. Educated, accomplished, gracious and of unusually sweet and sunny disposition, she will speedily endear herself to the people with whom she will be associated in her new home as she has to the people of this city by whom she is universally beloved.

The wedding gifts were numerous and handsome and came from friends of the popular young couple in all parts of the state. Included in the gifts was a check for $7000 from the bride's father and another for $1000 from the groom's mother who also gave a handsome suit of furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. Eastham left last night to visit Dallas and Ft. Worth before proceeding to their home at Italy.

FINLAY RECALLED.

Denied Standard Fixed Prices in State of Missouri.

St. Louis, Nov. 21.—Vice President A. W. Finlay of the Waters-Pierce Oil company, recalled for the defense when the hearing of the ouster case of the State of Missouri against the Waters-Pierce, the Standard Oil and the Republic Oil companies was resumed Tuesday. Mr. Finlay denied that the Standard or any other influences had anything to do with the fixing of prices for his company in St. Louis and throughout the state. He said that the prices were established by H. Clay Pierce himself and vice president and general manager.

Under Cross-examination Mr. Finlay stated that Mr. Pierce has instructed him to give any information necessary in conducting the company's business to Commercial Agent McNall, its New York representative. It had been previously developed during the inquiry that Mr. McNall had affiliated with the Standard Oil company, with offices at 26 Broadway, New York.

Mr. Finlay said in response to a question that Commercial Agent McNall's office had since been changed to 15 New street at McNall's request, that by entering 75 New street one could go right into the building known as 26 Broadway. The witness admitted having made a "short cut" by that route once in going to the Standard Oil offices from H. Clay Pierce's offices at 25 Broad street.

The salaries of officers, Mr. Finlay said, were paid by the board of directors of the Waters-Pierce Oil company. Once a year, he said, the list was forwarded to McNall.

Prior to the reorganization of the Waters-Pierce company, Mr. Finlay said, he had understood that the Standard or its interests controlled the Waters-Pierce Oil company.

PENN AND CLARK.

Make Arguments For Defense in the Anti-Trust Hearing.

Austin, Nov. 21.—Judge Brooks convened court at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning in the Waters-Pierce Oil company anti-trust hearing. Judge Penn resumed his argument for the defense, again taking up the act of 1903 and its defective caption in connection with the right of the state to protect pending suits under the act of 1899, and that the caption failed to mention this portion of the act. On this account he believed that the act is invalid. As to the charges of conspiracy in the petition Judge Penn directed the attention of the court that it was purely a conclusion; that facts were not properly put in petition; that it was a bare statement, and facts should show whether or not conspiracy was unlawful.

Judge Clark began his argument at 11:20, saying that he would not review those points already decided by the courts. He was of the opinion that the petition as a whole failed to show that defendant has acted in disobedience to the laws of the state; that it was confronted on the threshold; that its obedience to laws was fraud and deception; that Texas is only a component part of the country, and that it has no extra territorial jurisdiction, such as including acts in other states. Said Judge Clark: "The petition charges us with being an alleged corporation. If we are an alleged corporation, why did the state serve our agent? But we are a corporation, and we stand ready to answer any charge as to violation of law."

As to penalties he declared that the act of 1899 was unconstitutional, as it was discriminatory in that it exempted certain classes.

He called attention to the Farmers' Union and cotton association making agreements to regulate the price of cotton. He wanted to know why the attorney general and his young assistants were not prosecuting them.

He said the exemption of 1899 explained officers of the state are not prosecuting this form of combinations.

BISHOP TIGERT DEAD.

After an Illness of Ten Days Methodist Divine Passes Away.

Tulsa, I. T., Nov. 21.—After an illness of ten days Bishop John J. Tigert of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, departed this life, aged forty-five years. The end came at 8:45 o'clock Wednesday morning.

A three-inch chicken bone which the bishop swallowed caused a severe throat trouble.

The departed divine was born and reared at Louisville, Ky. His father was a contractor of that city and the bishop drove a wagon for four years. In this way he earned enough money to educate himself. He was graduated at Vanderbilt university and became a clergyman. At the last Methodist general conference, held last May in Birmingham, he was elected a bishop.

Bishop Tigert left Louisville three weeks ago to hold the Indian Territory conference at Tulsa. It was his purpose to also hold conferences at Fort Worth and Bonham.

The wreck was caused by the kagman becoming confused in his orders and opening the switch ahead of the northbound train, throwing the southbound train from the main line into the other train on the siding.

The wreck was caused by the porter of train No. 2 carelessly leaving open a switch. Seeing a wreck was going to occur he took to the woods. Passengers of both trains were wrought up and threatened to lynch him.
